

zine /zɪn/ - rhymes with bean short for "fanzine"

- Self-published and Self-Distributed Publications
- DIY (Do it Yourself): zines may have beautiful original art (digital or analog) or utilize cut-and-paste techniques
- Small Print Run: often print run of 1000 or less
- Cheap: zines are generally reproduced inexpensively (think Bulk copiers!), and creators traded or sold for $1-10(ish)
- Motivated by Desire to Share Message, not Profit!

Zines are a cheap, accessible, and easy way to reclaim the means of production!

HELLO! I AM A MINI-ZINE TO INTRODUCE YOU TO ZINES!

Please connect with us around zines!

ZINE SUPPLIES GENEROUSLY SUPPORTED BY THE ELON UNIVERSITY MAKERHUB AND BELK LIBRARY!

Make History with ZINES

Supplies:
Paper
Scissors
Washi Tape
Glue Sticks
Copy Machine or Printer
Long-Arm Stapler
Stickers

Stuff to cut up (old magazines, books)
Stickers

Bonus: Lots of folks include fun ephemera with their zines, such as stickers, bookmarks, playlists, buttons, etc.!

THIS MINIZINE IS A SINGLE SHEET OF PAPER!

8 1 2 3
4 5 6 7

FOLDING INSTRUCTIONS

Idea: Make a fanzine! Lots of zinesters make fanzines of their favorite artists, musicians, activists, public figure, historical figure, or even their friends and family members!

A BRIEF HISTORY OF ZINES...

- 1930s - Science Fiction Zines! Science Correspondence Club of Chicago organizes the Comet, beginning a long trend of sci-fi zines (1930s-1960s)
- 1970s-1980s - punk culture embraces zines to share interviews/reviews of punk music
- 1990s - riot grrrl movement revolts against male-dominated punk scene, use zines to talk about music and feminism

Today - zines are still popular! Zines cover lots of topics are often a tool for LGBTQIA, people of color, folks with disabilities, activists, and others to share their stories and message. Find more zines/zinesters at zine festivals, zine distros, and sites like Etsy!

CHECK OUT THE ZINE FESTIVALS IN OUR AREA!
GREENSBORO ZINE FEST - EVERY JULY
DURHAM ZINE MACHINE - EVERY OCTOBER